

an introduction to the cloud suit you deserve to be looked at like you are a cloud:

a wet, shapeless mass

you are indistinct, ephemeral

A mound of yellowish, crumbly material, possibly a food item like dough or a mineral sample, sits on a grey, textured surface. The material is irregular and appears to be breaking apart. The text "subject to change" is overlaid in a black, cursive font. The background is a grey surface with some faint, dark, brush-like strokes.

the cloud suit is a wearable illustration of the space you warrant *made of air, vapor, water, and gelatin, it can inflate to cloud your signifiers entirely,

and it can depress to illuminate your elements*

The image shows a highly textured, granular surface, likely a rock face or concrete. A bright, circular light source, possibly a flashlight, is directed at the center-right, creating a sharp, bright glare and casting a dark, elongated shadow to the left. The overall color palette is dominated by shades of grey, white, and yellowish-brown, with the texture appearing very rough and uneven.

A close-up photograph of a person's back and shoulder covered in a translucent, purple mesh fabric, referred to as a 'cloud suit'. The fabric is draped and folded, creating a complex, organic texture. The person's skin is visible through the mesh, and the overall tone is soft and ethereal.
